SB 532

Food Service Inspections/Domestic Violence Centers
by Senator Altman

Requires the Department of Health (DOH) to conduct annual food service inspections of certified domestic violence centers. Provides that the DOH shall limit such inspections to compliance with the requirements in DOH rule which apply to community-based residential facilities having five or fewer residents. Provides that the definition of "food service establishment" does not include any domestic violence center that is certified and monitored by the Department of Children and Family Services.
